

LESLIE ROBERT PORTER
22914 Cresp Street
Woodland Hills, CA 91364
(818) 222-8966

EDUCATION

Ph.D., University of California, Los Angeles, Graduate School of Management, Management Information Systems, June 1981.

M.S., University of British Columbia, Management Science, May 1975.

B.S., University of British Columbia, Mathematics, May 1970.

EXPERIENCE

- 1998 - Present Professor of Clinical Accounting, Leventhal School of Accounting, University of Southern California.
Teach the "Introduction to Accounting Systems" class.
- 1994 - 1998 Associate Dean/Professor of Clinical Accounting, Leventhal School of Accounting, University of Southern California.
Responsible for the administrative activities for the School of Accounting. These activities include planning, budgeting and staffing as well as establishing the school's technology direction. Developed and taught courses in the undergraduate, MBA programs and Master of Accountancy Programs. Primary focus is on the impact of technology on organizational structure and control systems.
- 1989 - 1996 Independent Consultant
Worked with large domestic and international organizations in developing and executing customized education programs for senior executives on exploiting the opportunities provided by information technology. Clients included IBM (USA, Argentina, Venezuela and Europe), Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, Northern Tel, Digital Equipment Corporation, British Airways, Barclay's Bank, Graduate School of Management at the University of Melbourne (Australia), and Hewlett Packard (Australia).
- 1989 - 1994 Professor, School of Business Administration and Economic, California State University, Northridge.
Developed and taught courses in the undergraduate and MBA programs on the introduction and use of information technology. Area head for MIS program.
- 1986 - 1989 Consultant, Index Group, 5 Cambridge MA.
Specialized in developing education programs that increased executive awareness of competitive opportunities created by the effective deployment and utilization of information based technologies.
- 1980 - 1986 Assistant Professor of Business Administration, Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University.
Developed and taught courses in the MBA program on the introduction and use of information technology. Conducted doctoral seminars on the foundations of computer based information systems. Developed and taught modules in HBS executive programs on managing the information systems resource. Published over 25 case studies in the area of organizational assimilation of new technologies.