

The Office of the Assistant Vice Dean For Research Presents

Assistant Professor Research Day 2022

Tuesday, December 6, 2022

1:00 - 3:00pm (PDT)

Breezeway between
Hoffman Hall (HOH) and Bridge Hall (BRI)

Please Check in at the reception table outside Hoffman Hall

The goal of the Assistant Professor Research Day is to promote awareness of the research being conducted by Marshall's Assistant Professors, foster a multidisciplinary research culture, provide feedback, and stimulate future collaborations. This event is also an opportunity for all Marshall faculty to engage in multidisciplinary conversation, to collaborate, and to learn from one another.
